CITY INTELLIGENCE. SATURDAY, Aug 13.

Naval Court Martial. The trial of Lieut. Pinkney was closed this day by the reading of the defence, a very able and well written docu ument, which, at the request of Lieut. P., the court permitted to be read by Assist. Surgeon Palmer. The defence com-menced by stating that the accused joined the expedition with the most glowing hopes of promotion, and with full confidence in the promises of Lieut. Wilkes, with whom, up to that time, the accused was personally unacquainted, "but alas! gentlemen, I had forgotten that he who had once vio-lated the chastity of rank must have made himself its enemy for ever."

The defence then went on to review the whole of Lieut. Wilkes conduct towards his subordinate officers—to com-pare the puerility of the charges with the testimony addu-ced, and to place in strong contrast the errors and discrepries between the written and oral testimony adduced or he trial, particularly that of the prosecutor himself.

At the close of the defence, the court were in secret session nearly two hours and then adjourned to Wednesday, when trial of Lieut. Wilkes will commence.

Important Decisions in Bankruptcy. DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES .-

Before Judge Betts. Several of the late decisions in this District by Judge Betts contain highly important points, which we herewith present in connection with the names of the petitioners on whose cases the opinions were given: John Harper Smith, and others-Compulsory .- The estat of an involuntary bankrupt comes within the jurisdiction of the court on the decree of bankruptcy being allowed. In junction can be invoked to prevent an involuntary bankrupt from disposing of his property, but indemnity must be furnished to defendant in case petitioners do not follow up their petition. Motion for injunction granted. Maynard Bragg .- A bankrupt, when examined before commissioner, can only be cross-questioned by his counsel so far as to correct or explain his direct examination. A for, mer examination before a master in chancery can be used before a commissioner to qualify or disprove a schedule and Orrin Brown.-The lien of attornies and counsel on a cli ent's papers are not taken away by the act, but such lien ceases on the estate coming into bankruptcy, and the fees to that time being settled. The presentation of a petition in bankruptcy is a dedica tion of the estate to his creditors by the bankrupt, which is made final on the passing of a decree of bankruptcy. Mark Moritz and Hersch Pinnicer .- If the 14th section of the act relates to voluntary bankrupts at all, it is only where parties are partners at the time of filing the petition. All the members of a firm must be included in the petition. In case of compulsory proceedings, it might not be necessary tha the parties were copartners at the period of the applicationt Proceedings cannot be unitedly conducted where parties mon juterest and do not seek a common decree The question as to the right of alien partners, whose debts were created abroad, to apply was not decided by the court

Charles H. Delevan .- An assignment and preference of ficuitious debts, in 1839, unless admitted in proceedings, can not bar a discharge. Declarations at the time of stopping payment in 1838, and immediately thereafter, that the estate would pay all demands against it, is not sufficient to prove improper concealment. Decree of discharge allowed. Daniel E. Delevan .- The objections on the part of a ma jority of creditors not being pursued by them, and Mr. Delevan having a majority, in number, of his creditors in his favor, on motion of Mr. W. M. Mitchell, counsel for petitioner, a decree of discharge was allowed.

Mark Banks.-Creditors are restricted in their objection to a discharge to the particulars designated by the statute. Although a petitioner styles himself " merchant,' objection to his not keeping books cannot be sustained unless it is shown that he was actually in mercantile business at the time. John W. Hull and Abraham H. Smith -Compulsory .-Creditors holding debts before the passage of the bankrup act, are competent to prosecute their debtors to a decree of bankruptcy. A purchase of goods, in 1840, on credit, with fraudulent intent, and a subsequent fraudulent appropriation of the property, render the partners subject to the bankrupt law. One member of a firm committing acts of bank ruptcy since the passage of the act, cannot support proceedings against both partners. The mere insolvency of a partnership, without acts of bankruptcy, will not authorize compulsory proceedings against it. The term 'insolvency,' in the 14th section of the act, must be understood as synony mous with 'bankruptcy.'

John Bailey.—Creditors, in order to defeat a decree, must shew that the bankrupt had property at the time of his ap plication, which he knowingly and intentionally omitted t state on his inventory. Previous possession of property, unless near to the period of application, does not afford ground to sustain objections. Brown King .- Exceptions to objections must be made in court previous to a reference. The strictness of practice, as regards exceptions pursued in ordinary cases, will not be enforced in bankruptcy. Creditors, in order to contest a discharge, must prove their debts. The term "other persons in interest" does not embrace but exclude creditors. John Q. M'Carty.-Evidence falsifying an assertion that a bankrupt lost $3,300 in 1839 is not sufficient to impeach a petition and schedule, unless it is also shown that he had the money nearer to the time of his application. If a bankrupt on examination, is discredited as to point of fact, the fact can be inferred as centrary to his assertion. An assertion made by a bankrupt's wife in his presence, and denied by him, cannot impeach his testimony. A voluntary convey ance of property before the passage of the act by an insolvent, divests his title, and he need not set forth such in his Royal Hill and Jacob Van Valkenburgh-Compulsory. The jurat from the compassioner need not contain a venne where the deposition itself shows that the oath was administered where the officer resides. The application to the court is the time the petition comes into action, and not its date or attestation. The petition must show on its face that the copartnership, as such, owes over $2,000, and that the acts of bankruptcy were committed during the partnership.

Aaron Abrahams .- A petition being sworn to nine days before presented, affords so bar to it. If property is acquired by the bankrupt during the interim it must pass to the assignee. Objections to legal points will not delay a reference as to facts. Procrastination will not be permitted on the part of objections. Decree of bankruptcy granted.

George Livermore .- Objections must take an order on the docket for hearing within two days on points of law, and instanter on filing for a reference to a commissioner. Objections against a decree of bankruptcy cannot, except on leave be used against that for discharge.

POLICE OFFICE .- JUVENILE DEPRAVITY .-Mary Kelly, Catherine Morgan and Mary Shadbolt, born respectively in Ireland, New-Orleans and France, and none of the- over 15 years of uce, were brought out of houses of prostitution in Reade and Elm streets, on Priday night, where they had been kept a short time for the most vile and vicious purposes. They were sent by Justice Stephens to the House of Refuge, to save them if possible from absolute rais.

ARREST OF PICKPOCKETS .- Two noted pickpockets named Thomas Henry and Francis Fayard, were arrested on a charge of having picked the pocket of William Henry Lane, No. 2 Cornelia-street, of his pocket book and some papers while he was standing in Chatham-square attending an auction sale of furniture. William Burke, of 124 Mott-st. saw the two prisoners feeling of the pockets of persons at the auction, as did another gentleman—and the former saw thenry take the pocket book out of Lane's pocket, and then step back, leaving Fayard next to Lane. When Lane cried out that his pocket had been picked, the pocket book was dropped at his feet. Henry and Fayard were then arrested, expressing their indignation at being charged, gentlemen as they were, with such an ofence—and being taken to the Police office, were committed to prison.

BROTHER ROBBING BROTHER .- William McGill was arrested and committed on a charge of having, on the 7th inst. stolen a watch, with chain and key and four breast pins, worth $12, from his brother John McGill, of No. 465 Washington-street, the greater part of which he disposed of to a Mr. Joseph, 411 Broadway.

CORONER'S OFFICE -DEATH IN A WATCH House -The Coroner held an inquest to-day at the Second District Watch-house, in Essex-street, on the body of an unknown female, about 30 years old, who was found in the street, leaning against a lamp post in Broome-street, near Clinton, apparently intoxicated. She was locked up in a cell and found dead there this morning. Verdict died of congestion of the brain.

SUNDAY, August 14. POLICE OFFICE .- STEALING WOOD .- Mr. Diltz, one of the agents, last night discovered a man named Denis Meraghty stealing wood from the wharf at the foot of Rosevelt-street, the property of the Directors of the Citizens' Line of Steamboats. Wood to a considerable amount had for some time been carried off previous to this discovery.

Denis was fully committed.

CORONER'S OFFICE -CHILD FOUND IN A SINK -The Coroner to day held an inquest at the Alms House, in the Park, on the body of an infant found in a sink on Saturday, in the rear of No. 3681 Hudson-st. There was no evidence whose child it was, or in what manner it came there, and decomposition had so far advanced that it was impossible to ascertain what was the cause of its death, redict, death from causes unknown to the jarors.

IT Life is but a slight blessing, if it is to be made miserable by the thousand diseases which continually beset it. If headaches, fevers, lumbago, nausea, and the thousand other ills which are deemed inevitable, are to emouter its oreasons, it can scarcely be deemed a gift worth keeping. But happily, this need not be the case: the Cough, Worm, Cordial, and other Lozenges of Dr. Peters are adapted expressly to ills which are deemed inevitable, are to embitter its blessings, and other lovenges of Dr. Peters are adapted expressly to remedy these complaints, and, taken in connection with his other medicines, are expressly fitted to make life what it was intended to be—a blessing and not a curse. Enoui is effectually banished by his Cordial Lovenges. His Pills and Plasters, for diseases of the stomach and rheumatism resectively, are unrivalled for efficacy. Office, 459 Broadway,

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—The proprietors submit to the public the following certificate, from a highly respectable source, of a cure made by using their preparation of Sarsaparilla, which cannot but have the effect of placing beyond all doubt the curative powers of this medicine :

all doubt the curative powers of this medicine:

"Messrs Sands—Gentlemen: Under a feeling sense of gratitude inherent to us all when suddenly relieved from suffering and disease, I now, as an act of justice due to you, and with a view of relieving the afflicted, make known to the world the inestimable benefit I have received from the use of your Sarsaparilla. In the year 1352 I sailed from England in a vessel bound for Quebec, and while on the passage first discovered the disease which after proved to be a sere affliction; and truly I can say, 'from the crown of my head to the sole of my foot there was no soundness in me.' From the time first mentioned down until the present, a period of more than ten years, I have suffered all that human nature was capable of bearing. I have been under the care of the most distinguished physicians both in this country and in England, visited, Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various specifics, among others a large try and in England, visited Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various specifics, among others a large quantity of Swaim's Panacea, used sulphur baths, &c &c. As a last resort I was induced to wrap myself up in tar ointment, keep myself secluded, shunned by all, myself also shunning. I was induced to believe my case a hopeless one. In August Iast, by the advice of friends, I went to the New-York City Hospital, but was there told that my case was incurable. The disease now enveloped my whole body, rendering me almost helpless; the skin thickened and cracked, and blood and matter ran, and life itself became almost a burden. A few weeks since I was induced to use nost a burden. A few weeks since I was induced to use most a burden. A tew weeks since I was induced to use your Sarsaparilla by hearing it so highly recommended, having spent near $3000 without obtaining but little relief. After using it a short time I found myseit better, and now, by using six or eight bottles, costing me less than ten dollars, I am well! Yes, I certify and declare to the world, that after spending near $3000 in traveling and doctoring, and suffering more than can be told, I was perfectly cured by using vary invalidable preparation of Sarzaparilla. by using your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla; and I now recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Those wishing to know farther particulars will find meatury residence, No 27 Warren-street, N Y, where I shall be happy to comnunicate any thing in relation to the above cur-

TONE THOUSAND DOLLARS-An Advertisement head-Lf ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS—An Advertisement headed "An Extraordinary Case," (which statement can be seen at the store of Mr. Burger, 50 Cortlandt-street,) having been inserted in several of the city papers, and as I understand the truth of the matter has beex questioned, therefore I offer to bear any gentleman's expenses to this city, convey him to the residence of the person, pay him two dollars per day for his time, and give him one thousand dollars, it he will prove any material part of the statement to be untrue. Any perorderings of testing this natter can, by calling on Mr. son desirous of testing this natter can, by calling on Mr. Burger, receive satisfactory evidence that the money will be ready. I would here take occasion to state, that the truth of the statements of cures performed by Bristol's Sarsaparilla can be substantiated in every instance. The public will not confound this article with the many articles of arilla advertised. C. C. BRISTOL, 1m (2) Buffalo.

THE MERMAID-AMERICAN MUSEUM .- Mr. Barnum the indefatigable proprietor of the American Museum, basecured the Mermaid for one week, and will exhibit i without extra charge for that length of time. We understand that the Manager pays one thousand dollars for the privilege of exhibiting this "queen fish" six days and nights, but we have no doubt he will receive six times that amount during the week.

The Sears' Bible Biography.—This is a most beautiful work, so far as paper, printing, embellishments, and binding are concerned. It is an octavo volume, and contains 491 pages of letter press, illustrated with some of the most spirited engravings we have seen for a long time. The frontispiece, by Lossing, represents Doddridge's mother teaching him Scripture history by Detet tiles. This is an analysis of the even may rest with exquisite picture, and one on which the eye may rest with more than ordinary delight. We have not had time to read the work, but from the notices given of it by some of the most respectable journals, we judge it will be well re-ceived by the religious public. Price, $2.50. Commercial and Money Matters. SATURDAY, P. M. There was a large business done at the board to-day, but generally the feeling was not very good. Farmers' Loan declined 1, Harlem declined 11, Long Island improved 11, Stonington 4. Mchawk and Delaware and Hudson firm .-There was a heavy decline in Ohio Life and Trust in conse quence of the authorization of a new issue of $200,000 Ohio State stock at 10 per cent interest, which will depress that stock and affect the value of the Life and Trust, that Company being a large holder.

There was but little dene in State stocks and but little variation to notice excepting in Ohio Sixes which fell off S. per cent, the effect of the vote to issue $800,000 of bonds, above alluded to. At 70 the stocks of 1269 pay 101 per cent interest. It strikes us that the attempt to issue so large an amount of new stock, and at so large a rate of interest, is very impolitic and must result in the depression of the Sixes to the lowest point of last summer, 50. Since that time they have been gradually recovering, and as the State has always punctually paid her interest, there was no reason to anticipate that they would have fallen below 73 to 75. The new stock will probably come to this market, but capitalists will probably be shy of State Securities bearing 10 per cent in-

The Era says that the present move of he Fund Commissioner against the Bank is with a view to orce the Bank to pay him $50,000 in specie to enable him purchase up State Bonds to make good a loss he caused the State by a negotiation he made to meet some State interest

This statement however of course has two sides.

The Wheeling Times states that the Banks of that place will resume with the other banks of the State of Virginia on LITTLE MORRIS PLACE, near Hudson, New-York.

Dear Sir—Having been snatched from the brink of the grave by your invaluable pills, I cannot retrain from returning to you my most heartieft and humble thanks.

I was most violently attacked with Dyspepsia about the 14th March last, and had taken the advice of all the physicians of this place, but to no effect. I was gradually wasting, the sad disease had already made inroads upon my constitution, and I was preparing for the grave, when most fortunately, I heard of your truly estimable pills, and a friend of mine who had purchased twelve boxes of you in Philadelphia, made me an offer of six of them; he assured me Letters deposited before 123 o'clock, M., will be sent out for delivery at 1 o'clock, P.
